... Petitioner/Accused.

Versus

... Respondent/Complainant.

PETITION FILED UNDER SEC. 315 OF Cr. P. C.

The Petitioner/Accused above named submits as follows:

1. The petitioner/accused states that the case is coming for further proceedings. The case is at the defense side evidence stage. The petitioner/accused intends to examine some witnesses on his side to rebut the evidence of the prosecution to arrive just decision of the case.
2. The petitioner/accused submits that as a defense witness he intends to examine himself before this Hon'ble Court.
3. The petitioner/accused submits that in the interest of justice and to arrive just decision of the case it is essential for him to depose oral evidence before this Hon'ble Court.
4. The petitioner/accused further submits that if the petition is allowed no prejudice would be caused the respondent/complainant. Whereas if the petition is not allowed great prejudice would be caused to the petitioner.

In these circumstances it is therefore prayed that this Hon'ble Court may be pleased to permit the petitioner/accused to adduce oral evidence on the defense side in the interest of justice and thus render justice.
